

NEW SERIES.

SEDALIA, MISSOURI, FRIDAY MARCH 24, 1893.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

SILVER DOOMED.

FREE COINAGE CERTAIN TO BE DEFEATED.

CLEVELAND TO FIGHT IT.

The Forces all Arranged for a War On the White Metal at the Next Session.

The Kansas City Times Washington correspondence has the following which will be of interest to all democrats, giving as it does what it is claimed will be the policy of the president, and if true, indicating an entire and complete reorganization of the political parties especially in the west and south:

"Considerable satisfaction is expressed by those here who are in sympathy with the sound financial policy of the administration over the fact that it seems generally agreed that not only Senator Vest but Senator Voorhees will act with the administration in all the coinage measures which are proposed. This being true there will be a plain easy majority of three on the senate finance committee in opposition to free coinage and in favor of the repeal of the Sherman law. These propositions, it is everywhere admitted, Mr. Cleveland holds to be of more pressing and urgent importance than even tariff reform itself. Speaking to a warm friend of his from Cincinnati, Mr. Cleveland said:

"Unless free coinage is beaten down and the Sherman law repealed this country will, within a year, experience the greatest financial panic we have ever known."

The impression grows steadily, and is assisted mightily by the federal appointments made so far, that the house in the fifty-third congress will favor the repeal of the Sherman law and will defeat free coinage, no matter in what form proposed. No one assumes to be authority for it, but the argument made on all sides runs like this: In the first session of the fifty-second congress the silver majority in the house was apparent and the Bland bill was only defeated by filibustering. In the second session of the same Congress, after Cleveland's election and when his financial policy was so well known, so many of the silver men changed their views and resolved to follow the administration that plain, clear majority of the house was against free coinage and in favor of the Andrews-Cate currency bill and a reversal of the whole situation occurred. The silver men were put on the defensive and it was only by dilatatory tactics that they saved themselves from overthrow.

Since the friends of Cleveland's policy claim that other changes have taken place in their favor. It is also claimed that of the ninety votes which will be in the Fifty-third congress which never voted on the silver question in the house at all, fully sixty of them are with the administration. Not only that; it is claimed, and not denied, that Crisp, who will be the unobstructed speaker, and chosen without contest in the democratic caucus, has agreed with Cleveland to so frame the committee on coinage, weights and measures that, while Bland will retain the chairmanship, the great weight of the committee will be warmly in favor of any money measure which the administration will ask. Crisp is a free silver man, but says prime necessity exists for perfect concord between the house and the president on all tariff and money questions, and will so make up the committees as to insure that result and reflect the administration policy as in a mirror.

Those in place to judge and to whom the question is important, say that the house in the fifty-third congress will be for the repeal of the Sherman law and against free coinage in the proportion of three to five. It is no secret, either, that Mr. Cleveland intends to dispose of the federal offices so as to promote and protect that condition. It was Herbert's vote against silver, not his naval knowledge, which named him secretary of the marine, and that policy in appointments which looks to the final overthrow of the silver heresy and the assertion of sound financial measures still obtains with undiminished vigor.

Mr. Cleveland makes no secret of it.

As matters stand no extra session will occur; but in December one of the earliest steps will be the repeal of the Sherman law, nor will the Bland bill or any of its kind take its place. The house will favor it heavily, and with Vest and Voorhees on the right side in the senate, success is sure."

Three Firemen Killed.

CHICAGO, ILL., March 24.— Three firemen lost their lives in the fire which destroyed the Summit Fuel company's building on Third and Laramie streets this morning.

A Fatal Explosion.

POTTSVILLE, PA., March 24.—Gas exploded in the Oakville colliery this morning resulting in the death of five miners.

FIENDISH OUTRAGES.

Women Assaulted and Men Beaten by Masked Outlaws.

CARROLLTON, Ga., March 24.— A band of masked men last night visited four houses on the Alabama line where they committed a series of most fiendish outrages. Two women were assaulted by the desperadoes and several men were badly beaten. One of the latter, Sam Bowen, may die of the injuries he received.

Seven men were arrested to-day, charged with participating in the crime. Some of them are prominent men and there is great excitement over the affair.

The outrages are said to be the outgrowth of a feud between the Beauford and White families.

A TOWN DESTROYED.

Kelly, Miss., Completely Wiped Out by a Cyclone

MEMPHIS, TENN., March 24.— Reports received to-day confirm the news of the terrible work of a cyclone at Kelly, Miss. The unfortunate village was entirely destroyed by the storm.

Police Court.

L. E. Morris, a cripple who lost a leg by having it frozen, was in court for intoxication. The man was in a terrible condition, a malignant cancer having eaten over the entire surface of his left breast.
He was fined $5 and granted a stay to leave the city within an hour.

Morris claimed to have several children in Iowa and said that he was on his way home from the Gulf, where he had been advised to go by a physician.

A Sudden Death.

Yesterday morning Mrs. J. T.
Albertson, wife of a Houstonia merchant, prepared a "toddy" for the family placing in the glass about two ounces of whisky. While absent from the room, Edgar, a seven year-old son, drank the entire contents of the glass. He was taken suddenly ill and never recovered from the shock, dying at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Died of Consumption.

Mrs Sarah Banough died of consumption last evening at 5 o'clock at the residence of G. W. Jones, on North Moniteau street. The deceased was 56 years of age and leaves seven children. The funeral will take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Died of His Injury.

Owen Mitchell, the section laborer whose peculiar injury by being struck in the back of the head by a coupling pin, and which was mentioned in yesterday's DEMOCRAT, died at the hospital last night. The remains are at the undertaking establishment of J. E. Hillis, awaiting the instructions of relatives.

Arrived From Texas.

C. P. Gorrell, a United States cavalryman stationed at Eagle Pass, Texas, arrived in Sedalia this morning in response to a telegram apprising him of the serious illness of his father, T. T. Gorrell, who is very low with pneumonia at his home, corner Thirteenth and Kentucky.

Real Estate Going Up.

The real estate firms are holding their prices up for spring, and some good property has been sold at quite an advance. The firm of Woodfin & Thatcher say they will not advance the prices for about thirty days on any of their properties. Parties who wish good properties or houses in any part of the city, had better call on them. They write fire insurance, best companies, loan money, buy and sell real estate.—314 Ohio street.

WILL PROSPECT.

JUDGE D. C. METSKER'S PLANS FOR THE SUMMER.

He Purchases the Machinery of the Sedalia Mining and Prospecting Company—Oil, Coal and Lead.

Judge D. C. Metsker has purchased from the Sedalia Mining and Prospecting company the diamond drill and other machinery used by them in prospecting for coal, lead, etc. The company was composed of Messrs. D. C. Metsker, Jos. G.
White, J. N. Dalby, R. H. Morris, Frank Schultz, Jonathan Myers, Geo. Babcock, S. P. Johns and H.
W. Martin.

It is the desire of Judge Metsker to prospect privately, and he has completed arrangements to begin the work as soon as the weather will permit. The drill is a new one and has a cut of about two inches. It will reach a depth of about 800 feet.

It has long been thought that in Forest Park were mineral deposits of sufficient richness to repay investigation. Southwest of the summer theatre, at the foot of the hill, have been found deposits of tuff and lead. The drill will be first set up at this point. When these deposits have been fully explored, the drill will be started near the sand quarry.
After this will come the most interesting prospecting of all, the sinking of the drill at Brown Springs.
These springs are located several miles south of Sedalia on the west side of the Sedalia, Warsaw & Southern railway, the narrow gauge.
For years they have been the favorite resort of picnic parties and pleasure seekers from the city.
There is a bountiful supply of clear, cold water sufficiently impregnated with iron and other minerals to render the medicinal qualities of the water of no small value. One of the most interesting things to be seen at the springs is the indication of petroleum. In many places an oily, soapy looking substance oozes from the ground and floats upon the waters of a stream near by in the form of scum. Said Judge Metsker:

"I was at Kokomo, Indiana, before petroleum was found and the same indications were present, though not half so favorable as at Brown Springs. Prospecting was talked of at Kokomo for years before anything was done, but finally a drill was sunk and one of the most extensive finds ever discovered was made. Last summer when the hot weather had heated the ground, I observed a gravel bed immediately above the springs that seemed to be a mass of oil, soap and small stones.
I have purchased the drill and will prospect during the summer at the most favorable points."

POOR OLD KANSAS.

How It Looks to an Impartial Visitor—Explanatory.

OSBORNE, Kas., March 23.
There has been neither rain nor snow of any account in this region since last October, and yet the wheat on the ground looks well and the farmers are all hopeful and anticipate a fruitful season.

The people here have much more regard for the Sabbath than the Sedaliens. They would feel outraged at the idea of stores being open, or a base ball game, or a balloon ascension on Sunday. And they most all go to church somewhere. And the agents for books and pictures, and lightning rods are as thick out here as hasty pudding.

What has become of the grasshoppers that used to devour every green thing in most parts of this state? Not one is to be seen. Have the populists come to take their places? And which is the worse?
For certain it is, the latter have done much injury to this state. No more capital will come here for investment. No man now will take a mortgage on a Kansas farm. If a man comes to Kansas to buy a farm he must come with money enough to pay down for his farm, or he will be in a bad fix. Many of the populists have refused to pay even the interest on their mortgages, expecting they were coming into power, and that the legislature would pass a law annulling all former contracts, and then the national government would loan them all the money they needed at two per cent! They want the government to own and run everything and give the populists all the offices!
A wilder set of creatures never existed. The buffalo that a few years ago used to roam over these plains were tame beside them. You can tell one as far as you can see him by his dress and gait. He has a kind of swagger that is really laughable, and if I were not a cler-gyman I should laugh outright whenever I met one. I should like to persuade some of them to go to Cleveland after office just now.

But they are beginning to look a little disappointed. Those who have fused with them have just used them for tools. It has been crow for them all the time. Poor dupes! But, like the grasshoppers, they will soon leave for parts unknown. General Weaver, the head of their ticket, has been a republican, then a greenbacker (with a kind of greenback never to be redeemed), then a prohibitionist, then a democrat and now a populist! As big a demagogue as ever sprouted! And his followers must have been, as Roscoe Conkling once said, "all snake bitten." I pity while I blame.

We dated our last letter from Creston, Iowa. It must have been a trick of the printer's devil, or I had been talking with a populist and did not know where I was. I had not been tasting of anything, for there is no saloon in this town and only one drug store that is in any way under suspicion, and the doctor only "prescribes" for himself and then occasionally passes the bowl around to his best friends.
I have not been introduced to him yet.

Will Be Buried.

The dumping of night soil by scavengers near a little stream southwest of the city, running into Flat Creek above the waterworks, has been investigated and this morning Sanitary Officer Doty went to the spot with eight scavengers who will bury the objectionable refuse deep in the ground and remove the danger of contamination. This will effectually remedy the matter.
It should be seen that in the future persons are prosecuted to the full extent of the law who are found guilty of dumping night soil in localities where the health of the city is endangered.

Just From the Jungle.

Two large wild cats and a beau-wildcats were unusually large ones and were quite ferocious. They had been shipped from San Antonio,

RELIABLE AND NEWSY!

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

The Democrat's circulation boom grows right along, regardless of the weather.

The activity in all branches of trade so early in the season indicates a most prosperous year for the Queen City.

The improved condition of the treasury since Secretary Carlisle assumed control does not by any means indicate a lack of confidence on the part of the public.

KANSAS CITY authorities are promptly fining all persons who fail to abate nuisances when ordered to do so. This is an example that every town in the country should follow.

BEAR in mind in the coming city election that the men elected will help manage Sedalia's affairs for two years, and that the management of those affairs affects every interest in the city.

In view of recent events there are a great many people in favor of a radical change in our federal judiciary system, and the proposition to make the judges elective would find many supporters.

The wise advertiser will remember that the purpose of advertising is to reach the buyers, and that the DEMOCRAT has a larger circulation in Sedalia than any other newspaper; it is the best medium through which to make those announcements.

The town of Highmore, South Dakota, has a female firebug who proposed to make the fortune of a lumber dealer if he would divide profits. The simple scheme was that the ingenious female should burn the town, so that the dealer could sell the lumber to rebuild it.

OUR republican contemporaries are unreasonable. A year ago they boldly asserted that a revision of the tariff by the democrats would bring ruin and bankruptcy upon the people. But now they are so anxious for the revision that they are not content for even "civil service reform" to have the right of way.

A WHOLE peck of trouble has appeared in connection with the woman's congress to be held in Chicago during the world's fair, says an exchange. It was the original intention that men should have nothing whatever to do with this congress. It was to be exclusively a woman's affair. But now an exasperating dilemma presents itself.
Most of the music, which was to be composed by women to be used in the great song service of the congress, is arranged for both male and female voices. Men must be admitted to the choir or the song service will be knocked galley west.

Was there ever anything more trying.

It is reported that an anthracite coal magnate of Minnesota has written a letter to Senator Donnelly, threatening to cut off Minnesota's coal supply next winter unless the investigation of the coal trust in the legislature at St. Paul is dropped.
This presupposes a degree of fatuity on the part of the combine that is hardly credible. The public would gladly welcome such a test of the relative power of the corporations and the people. It could only result one way—the complete overthrow of monopoly and a victory for fair and lawful competition. There is not the least hope that the Minnesota coal trust will rush to certain suicide by trying to boycott the state.

THE DEMOCRAT is glad to say that in the many battles fought between the corporations and the people at Jefferson City during the recent session of the legislature, Senator Ye-ater and Representative Prigmore were faithful to the trust imposed in them by the people who elected them, and that they did everything that could be done to secure the passage of fair, just and needed laws.
They were the faithful servants of the people, and true to their constituents in every emergency. Their friends have reason to be proud of the records they made and their constituents to be satisfied with the services rendered.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND's rule
"barring editors from public office" was not a discrimination against newspaper men at all, nor, in fact, was any such rule proposed. It has been declared, and correctly so, that the man who is appointed to a federal office must give it his personal attention. If, after preforming the duties of the office, he has time to edit a newspaper nobody will object. But the administration will insist, if he accepts an office, that the duties of the office shall not be neglected. This is the "rule," and it is a good one.

In speaking of the recent action of a federal judge in the Ann Arbor railroad case, the Republic says:
"We again caution the railroad corporations that it will be wise for them to use their federal judges a little more discreetly and with a little more regard for the decent opinion of mankind. For instance, why should Judge Ricks have been sent to Toledo on a special train when summoned by the Lake Shore company to give his rulings? Why not let him travel like any other citizen not in the employ of the corporations?"

H. R. HARPER, managing editor of the Chattanooga News, was in the city last evening on his way to the Pacific coast. He was surprised to learn that Kansas City has no garbage system. Chattanooga, he said, spends about $10,000 a year in the collection and disposal of its garbage. It is removed in the business district twice daily, and in the residence district once every day.
The town is kept clean at a small expense.—Star.

Here is a pointer for Sedalia.
This matter of sanitary measures must receive the closest attention.

UNCLE BALDWIN HARL, who died in Saline county recently at the advanced age of 102 years, was probably the oldest man in Missouri at the time of his death. He had lived under every president the United States has had and was a valiant soldier in the war of 1812.
A short sketch of his life appears in this issue, copied from a Marshall exchange.

It is a great pity that our friends, the railroad lobbyists, would not permit the legislature to submit the proposition for a constitutional convention. It was really not a dangerous measure for railroad interests, but on the other hand its success would have increased the prosperity of the state and thus brought increased profit to the roads.

A PARTY of Chicago & Alton surveyors, all equipped for field work, arrived at Slater the other day, but the character of the proposed work has not yet been made public.

Should the C. & A. conclude to build that long talked-of southwestern extension it would create a sensation in railroad circles. It will be well, in the meantime, for Sedalia to keep an eye on the Alton and be prepared to extend a cordial invitation to visit us at any time when it is probable such an invitation would be accepted.

SECRETARY CARLISLE is doing grandly in his efforts to reform the department over which he has been called to preside. Barnacles are being removed every day and the secretary does not seem to care a snap whom he displeases in the discharge of his duty.

ANOTHER vagrant was advertised for sale at Mexico yesterday, but the proceedings were stopped by a writ of habeas corpus. The constitutionality of the law is to be tested. It shocks sentimental people to see the "labor" of a man who was never known to work, sold on the auction block.

A FEW short months ago Springfield was shouting, "Come on!" and guying Sedalia about being slow in raising the subscription asked for by the Springfield, Sedalia, Marshall and Northern railroad. Now we are waiting on Springfield.
Come, hurry up, or let the work commence at this end of the line.

POLITICS is badly mixed in St.
Louis this spring, and if one believes one half the stories printed in the papers the Future Great is bound to go to the demitition bowwows no matter which ticket is elected. The only consolation for St. Louisians is that the charges are no worse than are told at every election and the outside world has not quarantined against the city yet.

In speaking of the work of the late general assembly the Kansas City Times, in its Jefferson City correspondence, says: "In the senate, Senators Cochran and Yeater were ever foremost in advocating measures affecting the people, while in the house the tribute of praise is due to many members almost equally distinguished for honesty and ability."

Chicago & Alton Survey.

A party of surveyors in the employ of the C. & A., unloaded off of the evening mail Tuesday with full outfit for running new lines, locating stakes, brush, axes, etc.
Their business here they keep to themselves, simply stating that they are in the employ of the company for any needed work and from the marks of fresh clay on boots and clothes they must have been at work recently. They are here for business that they did not deny, and they intimated that there was a large amount of work laid out for them to do. Just what this is remains to be seen. One of the striking call boys says they are here to "take a survey of the situation;"
and that is probably it.—Slater Call.

The Chicago & Alton is one of the strongest and best roads in the country, but it has very few branches.

Should that road conclude that it wants a southwestern extension it would be most hospitably received down in this section.

Never Pull Down the Sign.

Peter Cooper made a fortune through shrewd business tact which never lost sight of honesty. It was Peter Cooper who said: "In all towns where a newspaper is published every man should advertise, even if nothing more than a card telling his name and the business he is in. It not only pays the advertiser but lets the people at a distance know that the town you reside in has a prosperous class of business men. As the seed are sown so it recompenses. Never pull down the sign if you intend to do business, for it often indicates that grip, com-mercially, is broken. The judicious advertiser will receive $10 for every one invested in columns of a local newspaper."

Who's to be Postmaster?

"Who is to be your next postmaster?" inquired the republican.
"Why, it's this way," replied the prominent up-town democrat. "You know Cleveland said, a few weeks ago, that the men who did not send in any applications for office would be the men he would appoint in preference to others. There are nineteen of us here who want the postoffice, but everyone of us is afraid to send in a petition because it would give the other eighteen the advantage. Don't you see?"—Ex.

AMUSEMENTS.

She Couldn't Marry Three.

The phenomenal little star, Lillian Kennedy, in her delightful whimsical and natural play, "She Couldn't Marry Three," will be at the opera house Saturday, March 25. Few artists connected with the stage to day have made such rapid strides as this talented and bright little sunbeam. From her very first entrance on the stage the audience is caught, and from that time to the end her tears, her sympathy and her laughter are theirs, and her merry rippling of fun becomes infectious. Whether you want to or not you become almost unconsciously interested in Miss Ken-edy's portrayal of "Bess." She fits through each act of the play, now a tender, sympathetic maiden, again singing and dancing with the grace of a gazelle; never for a moment breaking the magnetic current that exists between her and her auditors. In these days when good plays are so far apart no one should miss the coming soubrette of the American stage in her new play,

Still After the Road.

The committee who are soliciting subscriptions with which to purchase terminal grounds for the northern railroad are meeting with fair success, says the Springfield Democrat.
J. M. Doling said yesterday that the north side people were subscribing liberally. A public meeting will be held at the court house Friday night, at which time the committee will report.

"Royal Ruby" Port Wine.

If you are reduced in vitality or strength by illness or any other cause, we recommend the use of this Old Port Wine, the very blood of the grape. A grand tonic for nursing mothers, and those reduced by wasting disease. It creates strength; improves the appetite; nature's own remedy, much preferable to drugs; guaranteed absolutely pure and over five years of age. Young wine ordinarily sold is not fit to use. Insist on having this standard brand, it cost no more.

Resolution.

Be it resolved by the Council of the City of Sedalia, Missouri, as follows to-wit: That we deem and declare it necessary that the alley running north and south through the south part of block 45 of the original town of Sedalia, Missouri, be paved and that this resolution be published in the newspaper doing the city printing for two consecutive weeks.

Passed by the council this 20th day of March, 1893.

The Use of Artificial Ice.

It is a fact that by far the greater portion of the ice harvested from lakes and rivers contains disease germs in great numbers. The process of freezing does not to any great extent kill them. It simply causes them to become dormant, and to revive and multiply with amazing rapidity when released from their enforced imprisonment.
With the size of the lake and the volume of the river the chances of harm of course decrease, but as our country becomes more thickly settled, our cities larger, the problems involved in pure water and in supplies are becoming more and more urgent and difficult. So far as the use of ice is concerned, there is a happy way out of the difficulty.
To manufacture artificial ice requires absolutely pure water. To this end the water is distilled and filtered until it is freed from all impurities and all disease germs are entirely destroyed. Artificial ice should, and in many cases does, command a premium over the natural product, but this should not, and except in very rare instances does not, preclude its use in households that desire to protect themselves from the incursions of the tin-ny foes that lurk in impure water.— most popular paper published in America. Its readers get the news half a week earlier than it can be had from any weekly paper, while its literary, agricultural, women's and other departments are unsurpassed. It fills the wants of every member of the family, and should be read in every household. You can get three new subscribers for it, by a few minutes' efforts. Try it, at once, and see how easily it can be done. If you wish a package of sample copies, write for them. Cut out this advertisement

School Election Notice.

Notice is hereby given that at the annual school meeting of the school district of the city of Sedalia, in Pettis county, Missouri, to be held for the election of school directors of said district, on the first Tuesday in April, 1893, at the same time and place in said city as the election for municipal officers of said city. There will be submitted to the qualified voters of said school district the question whether the rate of taxation for the year 1893 for school purposes in such district shall be increased to sixty-five cents for said year on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation on all the taxable property of said district; and those voting at said election in favor of such proposition shall deposit a ballot with the words written or printed thereon as follows: "For increase of taxes for school purposes to sixty-five cents on the hundred dollars," and those voting against such proposition shall deposit a ballot with the words written or printed thereon: "Against the increase of taxes for school purposes to sixty-five cents on the hundred dollars."

Done by order of the board of directors of the school district of the city of Sedalia, this 12th day of March, 1893.

Burgard Still Talking.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Burgard is still talking. Here is his latest utterance, made to a crowd in the National hotel. "I want to say right here," said Mr. Burgard, "that I elected John Martin senator. He could not have been elected over Doster, could he, if he had not received the caucus nomination? Well, I am the fellow who put in the three votes in the caucusthat elected John by one vote. I told him of it afterwards and he embraced me and said he knew I had been a good friend, and that he would reward me for it, and you see I am now here. Martin will not go back on me, and I know what I am here for. I know of an attempt to use money in the senatorial fight. You can just bet that if McAleny had been offered as much as he said he was to do anything he would have done it.
The amount of money he claims he was offered would have elected anybody and put through any bill if there had been no money put up against it."

May Write Editorials on the Side.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Postmaster General Bissell stated yesterday that no editor was placed under an iron-clad rule. "If a postmaster chooses to sit up until late in the night writing editorials," he said, "two certainly will not object, nor will we if a postmaster writes anything after office hours for a weekly paper."

McCreary Also Resigns.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Congressman McCreary yesterday tendered to the president his resignation as a member of the monetary conference.
He is the third member to resign, Senators Allison and Jones having tendered their resignations some time ago.

TO IMPEACH OFFICIALS.

Action Looking to That End to Be Commenced in Nebraska.LINCOLN, Neb., March 24.—The first struggle in the impeachment fight is over and the house has decided to institute proceedings against the derelict state officials. The fight opened with the introduction of a new set of impeachment resolutions by Representative Keckley, Republican, but later Representative Barry, Populist, substituted the following:Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the speaker, whose duty it shall be to immediately prepare such resolutions and take such other steps as may be proper for the purpose of instituting proceedings of impeachment against all state officials and ex-state officials it shown by such report to be guilty of malfeasance or neglect sufficient to warrant prosecution.Resolved, That said committee recommend to this body what steps, in their judgment, should be taken by the state to protect its interests and the recovery of such state funds as have been misappropriated, as shown by the several reports made by said special investigating committees.Before roll call began on the adoption of the resolutions a call of the house was demanded by the Populists, and the absentees were brought in.
At 3:15 the roll call was begun and Barry's substitute resolutions were adopted by a vote of 35 to 41. Part of the Democrats and half a dozen Republicans voted with the Populists for the resolutions.

Arranging the Preliminaries.

GUTHRIE, Ok., March 24.—A special agent of the interior department is here conferring with Governor Seay about the location of the lines of the new counties of the Cherokee strip, and in a few days the lines will all be located and the county seats designated. Other agents will be on the ground at once to arrange other preliminaries, and the prospects begin to look bright for an early opening.

Charged With Killing His Daughter.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., March 24.—W.
A. Payne, living in the north part of the county, was lodged in jail yesterday on the charge of killing his 13-year-old daughter by beating her to death. He commenced beating her the middle of the month and kept it up until she died.

Fifteen Indictments Against Buxton.

GUTHRIE, Ok., March 24.—The United States grand jury found fifteen indictments against Professor W. A. Buxton, the chancellor of Oklahoma, unanimously, all for using the mails for fraudulent purposes. He is still behind the bars, being unable to secure bail.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., March 24.—Enoch Mow of Rochester, on trial for attempting to bribe an elector at the November election, was found guilty and sentenced ten days in jail, fined $25 and disfranchised for ten years, the lowest penalty under the law.

Another Explosion in Rome.

ROME, March 24.—A bomb was exploded yesterday in the street back of the Universita Bella Spazienza. No damage was done. The university is but a short distance from Pantheon.
Nobody saw the bomb placed, and no arrests have been made.

Engineer and Fireman Killed.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 24.— There was a fatal collision between a passenger and freight train last night at Exeter, near Asp Fork, on the Atlantic and Pacific railroad, in which Engineer Robert Young and a fireman were killed.

Republican.WASHINGTON, March 24.—Secretary Carlisle has requested the resignation of J. N. Patterson, second auditor of the treasury department, but so far he has declined to resign. He has also accepted the resignation of W. D. Owen, as superintendent of immigration.Secretary Carlisle has accepted the resignation of A. M. Hughes of Tennessee, chief of the loan division of the register's office, treasury department, who was first recorded as "dismissed for cause," but was subsequently permitted to resign. He is the first change among the class of officials and it brought down on him this morning several of the Democratic members of the Tennessee congressional delegation, who asked for his retention. Mr. Carlisle was somewhat surprised at the request coming from that source, in view of the fact that Mr.
Hughes was a delegate to the Republican convention at Minneapolis. He declined to reconsider his action in the matter.

PROMPTLY CONFIRMED.

Republicans Will Resist.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The Republicans went into caucus as soon as the senate adjourned to determine their course of procedure on the question of reorganizing the elective officers of the senate. A counter proposition of compromise was proposed that the three officers nominated by the Democrats be permitted to qualify, but the subordinates remain undisturbed until congress should meet in regular session, but by a practically unanimous vote the Republican caucus decided to reject all offers of compromise and contest the proposed Democratic reorganization of the elective officers of the senate to the end.

An Insane Man After Mr. Cleveland.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., March 24.— Emmett Callahan, who made his appearance at Washington to seek justice from President Cleveland, is insane.
He is son of Michael Callahan, a master at the Chicago and Grand Trunk and lives at 105 Canal street.
His mother is insane and has been in an asylum for twelve years. Emmett is 21 years old and has served a term in the reform school.

ITS LAST BILL PASSED.

The Missouri Legislature Adjourns—State's Rights Not Upheld.JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 24.—
The thirty-seventh general assembly adjourned shortly after noon yesterday.Both houses held sessions lasting till after midnight Wednesday, with the result of cleaning up the work arranged for, and yesterday there was little to do. The pharmacy bill was killed at the last minute by the report of the conference committee which could not agree upon the amendments.The senate stood firm upon its amendment giving the geological bureau but $20,000, and to save the department, the house consented to the reduced appropriation.The house joint and concurrent resolution asking congress to pass legislation restraining the federal judiciary from encroaching upon state's rights was called up this morning and defeated, only eight senators voting for it. This leaves the governor without the support of the general assembly in his position concerning the federal and state courts.

Received in Grand Style.

ROME, March 24.—Pope Leo gave a ceremonial audience to-day to the princess of Wales, her daughters, Princesses Victoria and Maud, and her son, Prince George, the duke of York, attended by their suites. The entire pontifical court was assembled in state array and all the English prelates at present in Rome were in attendance.

A Plate Glass Combine.

CHICAGO, March 24.—The National plate glass company has been incorporated with a capital of $8,000,000.
Its object is to manufacture and deal in plate glass, etc. Dealers look upon the new incorporation with suspicion.
Some think it is the beginning of the consolidation of the plate glass industries of the country.

Big Santa Fe Changes.

CHICAGO, March 24.—Second Vice President and General Manager A. A.
Robinson of the Santa Fe road has resigned and it is believed that he will be the successor of S. H. H. Clark as president of the Union Pacific road.
J. J. Frey has been appointed his successor.

GHOST DANCES NIGHTLY.

Otoes, Missouri and Kiowas Indulging in the Mescal Craze.GUTHRIE, Ok., March 24.—Kirwin Murray, who would be the chief of the Kiowa tribe of Indians since the death of Tohe, the blind chief, and White Cloud, a direct descendant of old White Cloud of fifty years ago, was in this city last night. Kirwin says that the Otoes and Kiowas, whose reservation is just north of the Cimarron near this city have been for the past month and are still engaged in ghost dances, as are also the remnant of his own tribe which numbers now about seventy-four. Kirwin is a civilized Indian and speaks tolerably fair English.
He refuses to participate in the exercises referred to and as a consequence is tabooed by his own people.Kirwin says that within a mile of his allotment men of his own tribe congregate every night and engage in the ghost dance.He says that the agent of the Otoes and Kiowas is not doing his duty, and that he permits the Indians to engage in celebrating the advent of the Messiah. The nephew of White Horse died last Saturday. This boy was but 9 years of age. He was buried the following Sunday.White Horse is the present recognized chief of the Otoes and Kiowas.
The favorite pony which belonged to old White Horse was choked to death by means of a rope twisted around his neck and left there in order that the boy should have a means of roaming over the happy hunting grounds.Such scenes as this within thirty-five miles of Guthrie, the capital city of what is expected to be one of the states of this federal union, is annoying to the present settlers.

A MYSTERY CLEARED AWAY.

Columbus Yondell Was Shot at the Instigation of His Young Wife.SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 24.—The mystery surrounding the assassination of Columbus Yondell, a prominent farmer living near Seymour, Webster county, was cleared up yesterday.
Yondell was about 45 years of age and his wife 23. Last Wednesday evening he was shot at his home, and his wife said that the deed was done while she was in another room. She advanced the theory that someone laid in wait on the outside and shot through the window. Yesterday Wesley Hargis, 21 years old, a cousin of Yondell, confessed that for a promise of $200 he had killed Yondell. The money was offered by his brother, John Hargis, and Mrs. Yondell, who had been criminally intimate for some time.

Oklahomans at the White House.

man Dockery yesterday escorted before the president a delegation made up of Hobbs, Wiggins, Johnson and Smith, of Oklahoma, who united in a prayer that W. W. Witten of Oklahoma be appointed governor. Afterwards he led Colonel W. H. Woodson into the White house, but all the liberty the colonel sought was an opportunity to pay his respects.

Delirious Man's Awful Deed.

BARDSTOWN, Ky., March 24.—During last night at Bloomfield, while delirious, Joseph Houston shot and killed Allen Murphy, a business man and friend of the sick man, who was suffering from pneumonia. Houston made an attempt on the life of his wife and the dead man come to her rescue. Mrs. Murphy has become a raving maniac.

No More Vagrant Sales for Mexico.

MEXICO, Mo., March 24.—The negro vagrant, John Thompson, was not sold yesterday as advertised. A writ of habeas corpus was served. The sale of the negro on Tuesday was enough for the people here who do not want any more sales of vagrants if it can be avoided.

To Censure the Irish Executive.

LONDON, March 24.—Mr. Balfour, leader of the Unionists, gave notice yesterday of a motion to censure the Irish executive for condoning serious offenses, and thus bringing the law into general contempt.

building, is a total wreck. The white Presbyterian church and the colored blown down on 150 children and several of them were badly hurt, but none fatally.A special from Cleveland, Miss., states that a cloud-burst and storm

THE TERRITORY DELUGED.

Water Over Everything and Great Damage in Many Sections.GUTHRIE, Ok., March 24.—The storm which passed over Oklahoma and the Indian territory seems to have done more damage than at first reported. From 10 o'clock p. m. until 3 a. m., the streets here were like canals. No one dared to attempt to cross except on the divides. It was water everywhere else. Reports from the towns near this city show that mud distress prevails. The water put prairie fires out, but in its path carried stock, hen coops, pig pens and houses.Down on the banks of the Cimarron river the scene was exciting. A house to which a man and family were clinging passed by followed by scores of dead carcasses. Among the floating objects was a two-wheeled vehicle with a drowned pony in the shafts.
Other evidences of the storm's magnitude followed. At Oklahoma City the report is that much damage was done.

Two Fatalities at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 24.—A severe wind and rain storm swept over Nashville about 8 o'clock last night, doing much damage in the northern part of the city to roofs of houses, trees and insecure buildings.In South Nashville a store filled with people was blown down and a number were injured, but not badly, with the exception of two, one of whom, a boy, Eugene Drumright, was killed and the other, Will Drumright, will not live.

Severe Blow at Nevada.

HIS LIFE ENDED.

Baldwin Earl, Aged 102 Years, Dies at His Home Near Fairville.

From the Marshall Democrat-News.

Uncle Baldwin Earl is dead. This announcement will bring a pang of sorrow to thousands of people in central Missouri who knew and loved the venerable old man. He had been growing feebly of late and on Tuesday, March 21, 1893, he died as he had lived, a christian gentleman, at the ripe old age of 102 years, 2 months and 22 days.

Following is a brief sketch of Mr. Earl's life:

He was born in Loudon county, Virginia, December 29th, 1790, his father being a native Virginian, who had served his country faithfully in the revolutionary war. The family moved to Mason county, Kentucky, in 1796. At the age of 21, or in 1811, Baldwin Earl came to Missouri, then considered the far west. Here he helped in the pioneer work and assisted in the defense of St. Charles from an attack of the Indians at a time when St. Louis was but a village.

When the mutterings of the war of 1812 were heard Mr. Earl returned to Kentucky and joined the American army in Capt. Norris' company of Col. Pogue's regiment. They served under Gen. Harrison and assisted in the defeat of Proctor and his Indians in the battle of the Thames. Mr. Earl was personally acquainted with Richard M. Johnson, the slayer of the great Tecumseh, and he saw the dead chieftain after Johnson had killed him.

In 1852 Mr. Earl returned to Missouri and landed with his family at Miami. He purchased from the government the tract of land on which his present home is located, and which now constitutes a most valuable possession. He has been married twice, his first wife being Miss Mary Gates and his second wife Miss Elizabeth Evans, both of Kentucky.

He always took a keen interest in public affairs, and was a pronounced democrat in politics; his first vote was cast for Monroe in 1816, and he has voted the democratic ticket ever since. He has been a member of the Christian church for 70 years, and was one of the charter members of the church organized by Alexander Campbell. He has been a consistent, earnest member, too, and during his long life has won the love and esteem of all by his pure christian character and conduct.

Mr. Earl's living descendants, as near as we can ascertain, are one son, three grandchildren and six great grandchildren, the latter being the children of Mrs. O. V. Gentry, of Independence; of Mrs. Colin Peables, of Washington City, and of Mrs. R. C. Robinson, of Trinidad, Col.

We believe Mr. Earl was at the time of his death the oldest man in Missouri; certainly the oldest in the central part of the state, and he leaves a large and respectable number of descendants to mourn the death of a good man. His funeral was preached by Elder J. B. Mayfield at the residence at 1 o'clock p. m., on Wednesday, the 22d of March, and all that was mortal of the old patriarch was laid to rest in the beautiful Ridge Park cemetery near this city.

He has lived under every presidential administration, having been born during the second year of Washington's first term as chief magistrate, and was nearly nine years of age when the great man died.

Prof. Scotten Withdraws.

To the Democratic Voters of Pettis County. Profoundly grateful for the favors shown me in the past, and earnestly desiring the welfare of our great party, after careful deliberation, I have concluded that, all things considered, the action of the democratic convention on March 20th, 1893, whereby no nomination was made, should be taken to indicate that those who were before it as candidates, had not the approval of the democrats of Pettis county for the office of county school superintendent at the coming election, and that in obedience to that verdict I should withdraw my request for their support.

In doing so I very earnestly thank my friends who so kindly assisted my candidacy.

My successor shall have my cordial support, and there will never come a time when the interests of the democratic party, and, above all, the interests of our public schools, shall appeal to me in vain.

R. M. SCOTTEN.

Official Call for Primary.

The democrats of the various townships of Pettis county are requested to meet at their respective voting places on Tuesday, March 28th, 1893, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for county school superintendent. In all the townships, except Sedalia, the polls to be open from 2 until 5 o'clock p. m., and in Sedalia township from 1 to 6 o'clock p. m. The nomination to be made by this primary election, and the candidate receiving the highest number of votes will be declared the party nominee. The votes to be cast direct for the candidate voted for. No delegates are to be elected. Judges and clerks of the various voting precincts will immediately certify and transmit the vote of their respective townships to the chairman of the central committee.

Luther Rankin, private clerk for Superintendent H. G. Clark, went to Kirksville, Mo., his old home, this morning, and will visit friends a few days.

Vice-President Purdy, of the M., K. & T., returned Wednesday morning from Texas, to look after some matters here needing his attention. He will return to Texas Friday, the business in that state not being completed.—Parsons Sun.

On the Austrian railroads considerable attention has been given to planting trees along the slopes of the railroad cuts and banks, and in other places where there is room on the right-of-way. In some places these are intended as wind brakes and defenses against the snow, in others they are simply to utilize the waste land. A recent statement shows that these plantations, as reported up to date on the various lines, include about 370,000 fruit trees of various kinds—plum, pear, apple, peach, apricot and others—and about 3,600,000 forest trees. Some of the latter, such as willows, are planted chiefly on account of the use of their roots in preserving and consolidating the slopes; others—oak, fir, pine, larch, etc.—will be valuable in due time as timber. These plantations are being extended each year.

Seven Dropped Out.

From the Slater Call.

Tuesday morning seven extra brakemen quit their jobs and pulled out for a more congenial climate, where they can make their board.

The fact that some of the extras cannot make a living in Slater now is easily explained. There are thirty extra brakemen in the company's employ here and this number is entirely too large especially in the dull season, when the regular men can stand their runs.

HEARTY ENDORSEMENT.

A Well-known Democrat Endorses Prof. Charles for County School Superintendent.

To Editor of the Democrat:

DEAR SIR:—I wish to say a word in behalf of the candidacy of Mr. John Charles, of Houstonia, for the office of county superintendent of public instruction. In the present unfortunate imbroglio within the party ranks, in which Mr. Charles has had no part, he has been induced by his friends to enter the race. Having known him intimately for seven years, I take pleasure in recommending him to the Pettis democracy as a man in every respect worthy of their support. As superintendent of the Houstonia public school for several years he has given unqualified satisfaction. A self-made man, he has made the very best use of his great natural gifts according to his opportunities, and his attainments are such as would do honor to the position to which he aspires. He is a good disciplinarian and organizer; and back of it all, he is possessed of a world of good hard sense. If you nominate him you will never regret it.

Respectfully,
F. C. HAYMAN.

HE ATE THE EGGS.

How the Mistake of a Sedalia Lawyer Caused Him Much Misery—Sugar and Eggs.

Several weeks ago Attorney P. D. Hastain had occasion to be absent from the city upon legal business and while away met with an amusing experience.

Mr. Hastain makes no effort to know the latest fad, preferring those solid comforts of home that come with the experience of years. Among the different articles of china upon his dining table are a salt and a pepper box, each in the shape of an egg. Frequent usage for one purpose gradually caused Mr. Hastain to think of an egg-shaped salt-cellar whenever salt was mentioned. During the trip spoken of he was dining one morning at a rural hostelry and was served with eggs. Taking up the salt cellar, he sprinkled a large amount upon his eggs and was delicately distributing the pepper, when the maid exclaimed in astonishment: "La", Mr. Hastain, you don't like sugar on your eggs, do you?"

The genial lawyer had a decided distaste for sugar and eggs, but, swallowing the lump in his throat, replied with a forced and rather hysterical merriment:

"Certainly, I am unusually fond of sugar and eggs; in fact, it may be said that I was raised upon it when a small boy."

Bud ate his eggs in desperation while a St. Louis drummer eyed him suspiciously and wondered from what section of the country such a strange man hailed, deciding in his own mind that Chicago was the place.

Secured Her Horses.

Mrs. T. J. Herndon, of Clinton, who came to Sedalia yesterday to take her husband to task, has succeeded in getting possession of three of her horses. The fourth horse, together with a buggy, was traded by her husband to E. W. Stevens for a speedier animal. Mrs. Herndon will doubtless make some arrangement by which she can satisfactorily get possession of her property. She will endeavor to dispose of her horses in this city and return to Clinton, where she has a sister.

Mrs. Herndon was married to her husband about a year ago and at time was possessed of a snug sum of money. He established himself in the lively business in Kansas City but his desire for whisky got the better of him. The couple then went to Clinton where it was decided that he should go to Chicago and start a hack line. He got as far as Sedalia and began to squander his money. His wife heard of it and immediately came to this city.

Meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary.

Mrs. Patti Moore, president of the state board of the ladies auxiliary to the World's fair commission, was in the city to-day and met the ladies of the Sedalia auxiliary at the Commercial club rooms.

Mr. Oliver was present and stated that he would finish the Sedalia balcony in the Missouri building in wainscoting and place a large mirror in the balcony. Some Sedalia firm not yet selected will furnish the balcony. Mrs. Moore stated to a DEMOCRAT reporter that the money was now on hand to pay Mr. Oliver and that a neat balance would be left to pay for the furniture. The Sedalia balcony is a success and when completed will be one of the most attractive parts of the building.

Sold Very Low.

The attendance at the Joseph E. Turner sale of live stock and farming implements, at the Gentry farm, to-day was very small and property sold very low, considering its value. M. H. Hensinger was the auctioneer, but the cold weather put everybody out of the notion of lively bidding.

Young But Bad.

Deputy Marshall J. T. Stewart, of Kansas City, passed through Sedalia this morning on his way to the state reform school at Booneville where he was taking a fourteen-year old boy named Bert Clarkson who was sentenced to the school for grand larceny until he is 21 years old or is released upon good behavior.

Is Improving.

The many friends of A. E. Stewart of North Grand avenue will be glad to know that he is improving and will soon be himself again.

Dress Goods, Etc.

Never a season when the styles were so pronounced and the cuts and modes in making so strikingly beautiful and artistic. On the streets of New York City Easter Sunday morning there is a grand transformation scene from winter to spring, as the thoroughfares are alive with beautiful, bright Dresses, and Hats and Bonnets like so many bouquets of flowers. The West should not be behind the East in this regard. Certainly we have done our part in gathering together the very choicest things to be had, and here they are in all their glory. Nothing left for you to do but to come and make your choice.

Turning from the novelties to the plain fabrics for general service and a visit to the World's Fair you will see Whipcords, French Serges, English Serges, Buckram Weaves, Hop Sackings, Prunelle Cloths, English Suitings, Crystals, Ondines, Cravenettes, Henriettes and other favorite weaves. (Grand avenue floor.)

Washable Dress Stuffs

Send For Samples. (No charge.)

Almost everyone is a lover of the beautiful, and along with this goes the desire for a variety. If all the flowers in the gardens and fields were yellow, we would soon tire of them. Taking the wise hint from nature, weavers and designers have introduced multiplied thousands of effects of colors and shades. With the immense variety we are showing, hardly two ladies will be seen with the same kind of dress in a city of this size.

We have ready to show you over a quarter of a million yards of Washable Dress Goods, all new and made for this season's wear. Styles to become everyone no matter whether you are tall or short, slight or heavy, blonde or brunette, old or young. We neglected no one when we selected this stock. The prices are low on account of the vast quantities we buy and sell.

Come and be shown what we have. We believe it will eclipse anything you ever saw before. (Walnut street floor.)

The Hoosiers Want the Best.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop, Portland Mills, Indiana. That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventative and cure for croup, and why should they not insist upon having it? 50 cent bottles for sale by Aug. Fleichman, druggist.
